

Housing, treatment help for American Indian clients affected by service disruptions

For those experiencing housing crisis

Urban Indian Organization Resources

- American Indian Community Development Corporation provides culturally specific programs addressing housing and homelessness in American Indian communities in the Twin Cities metro. Learn more at aicdc-mn.org/programs. You can reach AICDC by phone at (612) 813-1610, and by email at Dbeaulieu@aicdcmn.org.
- The Indigenous People's Task Force operates two housing programs in Minneapolis. Learn more at indigenouspeoplestf.org, or contact Housing Navigator Avonne Wilson at avonnew@indigenouspeoplestf.org.
- Ain Dah Yung in St. Paul provides emergency shelter, transitional living and permanent supportive housing programs for American Indian youth. Learn more at advcenter.org/about.
- The American Indian Community Housing Organization in Duluth operates a permanent, supportive housing program. Housing through AICHO is handled through the Coordinated Entry System. If you are interested in housing services at AICHO, the first step is calling 211.
- Minnesota Indian Women's Resource Center (MIWRC) in Minneapolis is operating a Resource Connect Weekly Drop In every Tuesday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. They are providing a safe space with meals, resources, and service navigation. Questions can be directed to 612-728-2000. Contingent upon weather, MIWRC also operates an overnight Warming Shelter. In addition to these, MIWRC has many other services. Please call or visit miwrc.org for help.

Other Housing Resources

• Minnesota Sober Housing LLC operates sober homes in St. Paul and Maplewood, and works with other sober homes to place clients. Learn more at minnesotasoberhousing.net, or text 651-239-0012 for information on availability.

- The Family Homeless Prevention and Assistance Program provides supportive services and financial assistance, such as rent deposits, rent payments or utility payments, to eligible households that are homeless or at imminent risk of becoming homeless. Find tribal program contacts here: https://mn.gov/dhs/assets/MTC%20Contacts tcm1053-673185.xlsx
- Veterans Community Resource Referral Center
 - Online: Community Resource and Referral Centers VA Homeless Programs (https://www.va.gov/homeless/crrc.asp)
 - o Call 612-313-3240
- Minnesota Housing Benefits 101 an online resource to explore housing benefits in Minnesota.
 - o Online: HB101 Minnesota (https://mn.hb101.org/)
- HousingLink, Minnesota's primary source for affordable housing-related openings, data, information, and resources.
 - o Online: HousingLink (https://www.housinglink.org/AboutUs/Story)
- United Way 211 provides resources online, on the phone, and through text.
 - o Online: https://211unitedway.org/.
- Home Line, a nonprofit Minnesota tenant advocacy organization
 - o Online: Free Legal Help for Renters HOME Line (homelinemn.org)

For those needing substance use disorder (SUD) treatment

General SUD Resources

- FastTrackerMN.org, an active behavioral health search tool providing access to available treatment options. Visit FastTrackerMN (https://fasttrackermn.org/).
- The Minnesota Alliance for Recovery Community Organizations (MARCO) has an online tool to connect to a recovery community and resources in your area.
 - o Connect With An RCO MARCO (marcomn.org)

Department of Human Services (DHS) Resources

- The DHS Licensing Information Lookup to find an alternative licensed provider in your area.
 - o Online: DHS Licensing lookup (https://licensinglookup.dhs.state.mn.us/)
- The DHS SUD Get Help webpage for information on assessment and treatment services.
 - o Online: Get help for alcohol and drug use problems (https://mn.gov/dhs/people-we-serve/seniors/health-care/alcohol-drugs-addictions/get-help/)

SUD Resources specific to American Indian communities

• The Indian Health Board of Minneapolis provides culturally responsive and client-centered care to urban American Indian individuals and families in the Twin Cities. Services include

Medical Assisted Treatments, Comprehensive Assessments, Intensive Outpatient Programming, and culturally tailored support groups. Learn more at indianhealthboard.com/recovery-services2, or call 612-721-9800.

- The Native American Community Clinic offers nonjudgmental, harm reduction-focused support in people's recovery journeys. Learn more at https://nacc-healthcare.org/services-behavioral-health, or call 612-843-5981 to schedule an appointment with their Behavioral Health department.
- Red Lake Nation operates an outpatient substance use disorder treatment program in two locations. Learn more at redlakenation.org/chemical-health.
- The American Indian Community Housing Organization's Health Navigator can connect people with health resources in Duluth and the St. Louis County, including health insurance navigators, community health clinics, primary care clinics, and behavioral health treatment providers. To learn more, contact Darrian Moose, AICHO Health Navigator, at (218) 606-5575 or DarrianM@aicho.org.
- Leech Lake Band of Ojibwe operates men's and women's outpatient treatment programs. Learn more about the men's program at llojibwe.org/hs/mensoutpatient.html. Learn more about the women's program at www.llojibwe.org/hs/mensoutpatient.html.

Managed Care Organization Enrollees

If enrolled in a Managed Care Organization reach out to your health care plan at Health plan member services phone numbers (https://mn.gov/dhs/people-we-serve/adults/health-care/health-care-programs/contact-us/health-plan-contacts.jsp) for alternative treatment providers.

For accessible formats of this information or assistance with additional equal access to human services, email us at dhs.info@state.mn.us, call 651-431-2460, or use your preferred relay service. ADA1 (3-24)