

1. What types of placements are needed to serve individuals civilly committed as mentally ill and dangerous in the community?
2. What types of services are needed to serve individuals civilly committed as mentally ill and dangerous in the community?
3. What are concerns or considerations regarding a shift in practice to serve individuals civilly committed as mentally ill and dangerous in the community?
4. What are the barriers to discharge from the forensic mental health program?
5. What are recommendations to reduce barriers to discharge from the forensic mental health program?
6. What are the barriers to county case managers providing case management and meeting statutory requirements following discharge from the forensic mental health program?
7. Of those individuals currently experiencing a mentally ill and dangerous commitment type through your county, what is the percentage of individuals who were known to your agency prior to that level of involvement?
8. Are there services or changes to the process that could have prevented these same individuals from reaching the need of a mentally ill and dangerous commitment type?